ABOUT THE AWARDS

Now in their fifth year, The Professional Trader Awards have highlighted and revealed the very best brokers in the business.

These annual awards are open to regulated brokers who offer their clients an 'exclusive' professional client trading account. They champion the brokers who are out in front when it comes to trading analysis, execution, account technology & performance tools, as well as offering the best in trading conditions, margin rates, loyalty programs and the overall client relationship service experience.

This year's competition has seen record numbers of votes with 11,500 votes from 1,900 unique voters across the 17 award categories. The awards on offer cover all key areas that are so very important to traders with brokers nominating themselves during the initial self-nomination period, before being voted for by traders using professional accounts.

"This year's list of winners is again of the highest calibre. The industry has chosen winners who are clearly among the very best in the business and are out in front when it comes to offering the services and products expected by traders. Congratulations to you all," explains Mike Boydell, Director of Holiston Media which organises the awards.

CFDs are complex instruments and come with a high risk of losing money rapidly due to leverage.
70% of retail investor accounts lose money when trading CFDs with this provider. You should consider whether you understand how CFDs work and whether you can afford to take the high risk of losing your money.

BEST CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

This award recognises the business that chooses to go over and above what is strictly necessary in order to deliver social, economic and environmental benefits to anyone affected by the business and its activities. In a nutshell, the winners of this award use CSR to encourage their business to improve the lives and situations of as many people as possible.

WINNER: FXPRO

At FxPro, our commitment extends beyond providing top-tier trading experiences for our clients; it encompasses a profound dedication to corporate social responsibility. We actively support worthwhile causes through regular contributions to charities and active participation in environmental initiatives benefiting our planet and local communities. Our employees are our cornerstone, and we prioritise their welfare and mental health through personal development opportunities, in-house education, competitive salaries, and balanced work schedules. While recognition is not our primary motive, we are immensely proud of being awarded this title, and we persist in setting a pioneering example in our industry, championing charity work and employee well-being.

BEST MOBILE TRADING PLATFORM (EUROPE)

This award recognises the broker offering the most superior 'on-the-go' product in the professional trading account market. Their mobile platform will almost mirror the experience customers have when trading on their desktop.

WINNER: ROBOMARKETS

"Receiving the award for the best mobile platform for consecutive years is a remarkable honour for us at RoboMarkets. This consistent recognition is a testament to the value that the professional trading community places on our mobile trading products.

Our priority has always been to empower our clients with the ability to manage their accounts and trade seamlessly from any location with internet access. This commitment is evident in our robust R StocksTrader mobile app, which features an extensive array of trading instruments, including a wide range of US Stocks and ETFs, totalling over 3,000 instruments for trading and investment.

The app is more than just a trading tool; it integrates features such as in-app deposits and withdrawals, expert market analysis, a sophisticated copy-trading platform, and round-the-clock support. These features collectively distinguish R StocksTrader in the market, aligning with the preferences of professional traders. Our ongoing updates focus on enhancing trading capabilities and risk management, ensuring an optimal trading experience.

We sincerely thank everyone who voted for RoboMarkets for contributing to this prestigious accolade."
